

General Terms of Agreement at “43rd IAEE International Conference in Paris, June 2020”

General

The following terms and conditions set out the legal rules applicable to the 43rd IAEE International Conference in Paris from 21st to 24th of June 2020 (hereinafter Conference) and post-conference related events. Participants shall be bound by these terms and conditions upon registering for the Conference and are advised to read and understand these terms carefully before registering. The Organizer will not accept any conditions contradictory to or deviant from these general terms and conditions.

Organizer

The organizer responsible for the organization of the Conference is FAEE – Association des Économistes de l'Énergie, 4 Avenue de Bois Preau - 92500 Rueil Malmaison, France (hereinafter Organizer).

Registration

Registration to the Conference must be done through the online registration system on the Conference Website prior to arrival at the Conference venue. The registration deadline is announced at the Conference Website. Participants will receive an automatic confirmation of the registration details by email. If you do not obtain a confirmation in your e-mail, please send an email to iaee2020@oyco.eu to make sure that your booking was successful. The registration is only valid after receipt of the registration fee or by the authorization of credit card payment. Please, notify any modifications to your registration immediately.

STUDENT DEFINITION: A student is someone who is enrolled in a degree-granting program (either undergraduate or graduate) at an institution of higher learning and registered full-time according to the definition of his/her respective academic institution, and who is not employed full-time. Students must submit written verification from a professor or another verifiable school authority at their institution attesting to their full-time student status when making an application. Only IAEE student members, according to the definition above, may apply for Student scholarships to IAEE (deadline March 20, 2020) conferences and participate in IAEE conference events that are designated for student participation. The requirement must be met at the time of initial submission of research to the conference in question. For information on the definition of student, please visit the IAEE website ».

YOUNG PROFESSIONAL DEFINITION: A young professional is someone who, although he or she may be employed full-time, is within two years of graduation from a full-time Bachelor, Masters or PhD program (or ABD post-docs) and is under the age of 35. To qualify for young professional rates for a IAEE conference, a young professional must have graduated within the two years prior to the start date of the conference. A young professional must submit one of the following written verifications attesting to their young professional status: (a) Copy of their transcript from the institution they attended within the past two years (b) Written letter from their faculty advisor attesting that they were a full-time student within the past two years. To verify that an individual is age is less than 35, a copy of a driver license or other government issued identity card (e.g., passport) will need to be submitted to IAEE. For information on the definition of young professional please visit the IAEE website »

SPOUSE/PARTNER registration gets access to all meals (lunch, dinner, socials), but no access to sessions.

Fees and Payment Conditions

The registration fees are announced at the Conference Website and include admission to all conference sessions, detailed program, list of participants, morning and afternoon refreshment breaks, lunch and social dinner as announced at the Conference Website.

Travel, accommodation and additional meal expenses are excluded from registration fees and should be covered by participants (additional expenses).

The organizers will also not cover expenses for travelling, accommodation, registration fee or any other costs related to the conference when someone requests a “letter of invitation” as offered at the conference website.

We recommend using the online payment on the Conference Website when registering for the Conference. The alternative is a bank transfer in which case all bank charges shall be at the expense of the person authorizing the payment. All payments are made in Euro.

Cancellation

Due to the current state of COVID-19 pandemic, exceptionally the conference organizers offer to the conference participants a full refund of the registration fee if the French Health Authorities declares a state of emergency in France. If by the 15th of May the COVID-19 outspread has been maintained, then the following cancellation rules will apply:

Cancellations are allowed if requests are received on or before on or before June 15, 2020, but each – even prior to this date - is subject to a non-refundable € 300 administrative fee.

There are no exceptions to this policy. Should you be unable to attend, however, a substitution may be made to transfer your fully paid registration to another member of your organization at any time up to June 5, 2020.

All cancellations and changes must be submitted via email – with indication of full name and organization: iaee2020@oyco.eu . The Organizer does not accept liability for the successful transmission of cancellations.

The Organizer reserves the right to amend the content of the program, the speakers and the times of presentations at any time if necessary. If the number of participants is insufficient, the Organizer reserves the right to cancel the Conference and all related products and/or services without any liability on his part. In the case of a cancellation by the Organizer participants will be reimbursed the registration fee actually paid.

Liability

The Organizer and IAEE does not accept liability for the up-to-datedness, correctness and completeness in respect to the conference documentation and content. The Organizer and IAEE will not accept liability for damages, injury, or loss of benefits of any nature sustained by delegates or accompanying persons, or loss of, or damage to their personal property as a result of the conference, or related events, or traveling to or from the conference.

Insurance

The Organizer cannot be responsible for healthcare, dental and ambulance services during the International Conference 2020 in Paris. The Organizer recommends that participants take out medical and travel insurance, which should cover the possibility of flight cancellation due to strikes and other causes. Therefore, the Organizer accepts no responsibility of any nature whatsoever for personal injury, death, loss or damage to property or participants however caused or arising.

Photographs (Pictures & Video Taping)

The Organizer may use and release pictures and shots taken of the participants and/or their works (such as posters, parts of presentations) during the Conference for reports of the Conference and announcement of events in the future free of charge and without the further consent of the participants.

As a participant by the act of registering and attending this IAEE conference, you agree that IAEE shall acquire the right to use your name, photography, video recording, and/or audio recording in reporting about the conference in their publications or websites, in publicity for future conferences, or in other reasonable manners for the benefit of the IAEE. You further agree to waive any liability on the part of the IAEE, and to hold the IAEE harmless, for any damages, injury, or loss of benefits that you incur during your travel to or from or attendance at this conference.

Copyright Agreement

You, as author(s) of the submitted abstract and full length paper for the conference, may claim and retain all copyrights to these works on the condition that you grant to the IAEE an unconditional non-exclusive indefinite license to publish, summarize, edit, or make available these works in IAEE publications or on the IAEE website, and to use the author's name(s) in connection with the publication, advertising, and promotion of these works. You, as author(s) of the submitted works, further warrant that they are original, have not been published previously, and contain no matter unlawful in content or in violation of the rights of any third party. Concerns about this agreement should be communicated by email under the subject "IAEE Copyright Agreement" to iaee@iaee.org.

Privacy Policy

All personal data provided to the Organizer for registration will be treated as confidential and used only for the purposes of the 43rd IAEE International Conference. Anonymized data shall be used and stored for further processing and documentation purposes. The information will not be re-used for an incompatible purpose. In registering for the Conference, relevant details will be incorporated into a participant list for the benefit of all delegates. Normally this information would be: name, surname, institution, country and email address. The Organizer may use these data to inform current participants of Conference updates or future conferences via email. Participants are responsible for advising the Organization committee if they do not wish to have their email addresses included in the conference participant list or in the Organizer distribution list for future events.

Severability Clause

If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is found to be invalid, the invalidity of that provision will not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of these Terms and Conditions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

Disputes

All agreements between the Organizer and the Participant and all disputes which may arise between the Organizer and the Participant shall be exclusively subject to the French law. Court of jurisdiction shall be Paris.
